

Free Family Fun Days at Newcastle College

Join Newcastle College every Tuesday in August to enjoy a range of fun, informal and inclusive activities designed to help families learn together.

This free Family Learning project is funded by The North East Combined Authority and aims to support parents, carers and children to build confidence, develop practical skills and strengthen learning together as a family.

Sessions will support parents and carers to:

- Build confidence in supporting children with English, maths, phonics and homework
- Learn about digital homework platforms and AI tools
- Explore careers, further education and apprenticeships
- Develop budgeting, healthy eating and financial skills
- Understand online safety, screen time and children's wellbeing
- Strengthen family communication and children's aspirations

The sessions are completely free to attend, relaxed and welcoming, with lots of enjoyable activities for children and families.

- ? Trevelyan Building, Newcastle College
- ? Every Tuesday from 4 August
- ? 10:00am
- ? Free to attend

For more information and to confirm attendance, please contact Mike Cooper at Michael.Cooper@ncl-coll.ac.uk and Helen Wilkinson at Helen.Wilkinson@ncl-coll.ac.uk

There will be more Family Learning sessions available. For details of upcoming sessions and further information, please contact the team members above.

Come along, meet other families and learn something new together! Note: advance booking is essential.
