

A Forgotten NE Photographer - Charles Nicol

A special event to tie in with Heritage Open Week. Julian Harrop of Beamish Museum tells the story of Charles Nicol, a gifted photographer based in Grosvenor Road, whose archive is a vital record of local places and personalities from 1900 onwards.

Held in the main room at Jesmond Library. If you would like to join via Teams, or receive a recording, please contact talksandmore@jesmondlibrary.onmicrosoft.com
