

Family Ballet Workshop

Part of the Black History Month collection. This workshop is a fun and accessible introduction to ballet for very young children and their families.

Led by one of the dancers from the Black British Ballet Project, this workshop is a fun and accessible introduction to ballet for very young children and their families/carers. Suitable for children aged 3 – 5, plus their carers. Please book a place for your children and yourself.

Last updated: September 2, 2026