

African Lives in Northern England Project

This event, led by Don O'Meara of Historic England and Beverley Prevatt Goldstein of the African Lives in Northern England Project, links the North East History and Black History as indivisible. Talks, slides, discussion will be complemented by Caribbean snacks. It is an event for all and an example of working together to challenge racism.

Last updated: October 1, 2026