Local History Drop-In

A friendly local history drop in with a new theme each week.

Browse old photographs, maps, newspapers and other treasures from the library's archives collection. You can also look through local history books and uncover the people, places and events that helped shape our city.

Whether you love history, are curious about the past or have memories to share, everyone is welcome.

No booking needed – just drop in!

Any questions? Please email us at readingforwellbeing@newcastle.gov.uk

Last updated: November 2, 2026