Information NOW
Information for people in Newcastle upon Tyne

National Autistic Society

The National Autistic Society – NAS – provide information, support and a range of useful services. These services support parents, people with a diagnosis of autism and professionals who support and advise people with autism, including school teachers. They support people looking for employment and offer befriending and support groups as well as information about benefits including carers benefits and respite.

Last updated: October 27, 2025

Telephone: 0207 833 2299

Website: http://www.autism.org.uk/

Email: north.services@nas.org.uk

Website 2: https://www.autism.org.uk/directory/n/nas-tyne-and-wear-branch

Opening Hours: Helpline opening hours:
Monday-Thursday 10 am-4 pm,
Friday 9 am-3 pm (excluding Bank holidays)

Cost: Free

Address:
National Autistic Society
2nd Floor Weston House
42 Curtain Road
London
EC2A 3NH

Related Articles

Learning disability local support services

Autism and local support services

Living with a long-term health condition or disability