

Blue Sky Trust

Blue Sky Trust is a registered charity supporting and connecting men, women and children living with and affected by HIV at every step of their journey in Newcastle and surrounding areas. This includes one to one support, peer mentoring, peer support as well as courses to help people live well with HIV and overcome stigma.

Self referrals and referrals from professionals and agencies can be made by phone or online via our website.

Blue Sky Trust is commissioned by Newcastle City Council for sexual health support.
