Fulfilling Lives

Fulfilling Lives support people with multiple and complex needs such as:

- homelessness
- current or historical offending
- problematic substance or alcohol misuse
- mental ill-health

They help people navigate the system and access services. They use a ‘refer and accompany’ approach.

They support people during a critical times of transition in their lives such as, prison release, hospital discharge, an accommodation move, discharge from rehabilitation and moving from children’s to adult services.

They run an Experts by Experience Network to influence change in services to meet the needs of clients.

It is a partnership of organisations including Changing Lives, Oasis Aquila and Mental Health Concern.
